

Media Crew

Rain City Rock Camp Summer 2022

Position Overview:

The Media Crew is crucial to documenting the camp experience so that we can archive and share our experience with camper families, volunteers, funders, and the press. With such a broad range of activities happening each day at camp, there's always a special moment to capture.

Photography

Experienced photographers to take candid shots, ID photos for campers and volunteers, camper band photos, morning and afternoon assembly photos, and Showcase documentation.

Videography

Experienced videographers comfortable with shooting video documentation of camp, including interviews and b-roll, and editing footage into brief clips for social media.

Adults of all genders are welcome to apply for this position. We can provide some equipment but volunteers are also welcome to use their own. All media content is sole property of Rain City Rock Camp and must be delivered by the end of the camp session.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Experience with photography + videography for live music and group settings
- Familiarity with or willingness to learn technology used by RCRC
- Willingness to respect privacy and boundaries of all camp participants
- Willingness to follow all media permissions and confidentiality guidelines set by RCRC
- Knowledge of or interest in learning more about social justice issues impacting youth and adults of marginalized genders, especially relating to the music industry
- Creativity, patience, and willingness to approach each situation with a growth mindset
